

Distributors We Serve

Essential Products Into Essential Markets

Jan-Mar provides essential products to distributors in the following markets:

1. Healthcare
2. Foodservice
3. Industrial
4. Office Products
5. Automotive
6. Institutional/Commercial

While these industries may be distinct from each other, companies in each one constantly seek:

- >> product innovation
- >> to reduce the cost of goods they need
- >> to grow lean while going green
- >> to make procurement more efficient

Regardless of your in-house capacity to serve your customers, Jan-Mar can help you grow your business by expanding the product bundle and improving the value you have to offer. We combine our distribution network, our vast product selection and our specialized expertise to help you meet all your customers' needs.
